

Carey Olsen – The Largest Law firm in the Channel Islands announces Bluerave as the provider of their new client, matter inception process.

London — November, 2008 — Bluerave, UK's premier Ultimus partner of the award winning Business Process Management (BPM) workflow solution, is proud to announce that Carey Olsen, the largest law firm in the Channel Islands, have chosen Bluerave to build, automate and deploy their new client, matter inception, client identification and due diligence process using Ultimus as their BPM/workflow platform of choice.

Bluerave are looking forward to taking up the gauntlet where Carey Olsen's previous BPM/workflow provider left off. Bluerave's first task is to automate Carey Olsen's business acceptance process, commonly known as 'matter inception' which is one of its most critical, challenging and time consuming activities. The system will be built entirely by Bluerave developers under pinned by Bluerave's Flexi-Pod technology which provides all the functionality required for the adoption of a new client or opening of new matter for an existing client.

Stuart Bush, IT Director at Carey Olsen, said, "The improvements to Carey Olsen's workflow system will streamline the administrative core of the firm's work, reducing the amount of time spent and increasing the accuracy of records. This means the firm can offer clients a more effective, more cost-efficient, service."
